

POSITIVE SELF-TALK

for Self-Esteem

Positive Self-Talk is something you say to yourself when you're not feeling very confident. It should be something that helps you feel better about yourself and your strengths. Read the statements below and see which ones you could use the next time you're lacking self-esteem. In the empty speech bubbles, write in your own positive self-talk!

There are some things that I just can't do well yet. I can choose to get better!

Other people can say what they want about me. I get to decide what's true!

I'm glad that I'm different. I like myself just the way that I am.

What would the people who love me say about me?

It was just one mistake. It happens to everyone!

Being mean to myself will only make me feel worse. What is something nice to say?

What would I say to a friend that was feeling the same way?

Things didn't work out for me, but I can still look on the bright side.

I don't have to be perfect; I just have to give it my best effort.

What do I have control over that I can change to improve my self-esteem?

What are five good things about myself that I know to be true?

I don't need to compare myself to others. We all have different strengths!
